

9TH ANNUAL

ADHD AWARENESS EVENING

Executive Functions and the Gap between Knowing and Doing
Thursday, October 8, 2015 • 7-9 p.m.

Centennial High School • 4300 Centennial Lane • Ellicott City, MD 21042

Featured Guest Speaker

George McCloskey, Ph.D.

George McCloskey, Ph.D., is a Professor and Director of School Psychology Research in the Psychology Department of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. He is a nationally and internationally recognized expert on the topic of executive functions and frequently presents on this topic at international, national, regional and state professional organization meetings. Dr. McCloskey is the lead author of Assessment and Intervention for Executive Function Difficulties and Essentials of Executive Functions Assessment and is currently working on books for teachers, parents and students on the topic of executive functions. Dr. McCloskey works with individual clients diagnosed with executive functions deficits including adults and children and their parents and consults with a number of organizations and private schools, such as the College Internship Program, that work with students diagnosed with autism spectrum disorders as well as other disabilities.

Funding to support this program was provided by CHADD of Greater Baltimore in memory of Karen A. Cruise, Ph.D. Dr. Cruise was a Psychologist who helped many children in Howard County and also served as the Coordinator of CHADD of Greater Baltimore.

For more information, please contact Sally Dorman at 410-313-1252 or e-mail sally_dorman@hcpss.org.

Free program, open to all. No pre-registration required.